

African Regional Conference on the Right of Access to Information

Accra, Ghana February 7-9, 2010

Sunday February 7

10:30 am Registration and Coffee – La Palm Conference Centre, outside Afayhe Secretariat

Plenary Sessions – Adae Kesie Hall

11:30 am Opening Session

Samuel O. Ablakwa, Deputy Minister of Information, Ghana Jimmy Carter, Former President of the United States of America Sanjay Pradhan, Vice President, World Bank Institute

Laura Neuman, Manager Access to Information Project and Associate Director, The Carter Center

12:45 pm Photo

1:00 pm Luncheon – Royal Dragon Chinese Restaurant, La Palm Hotel

2:00 pm Panel 1: Does Transparency Matter?

Chair: Minister Natty Davis, Minister of State, Development and Reconstruction, Liberia Respondents: Minister Vitoria Dias Diogo, Minister of Public Service, Mozambique Minister Lambert Mende Omalanga, Minister of Communication and Media, Democratic Republic of the Congo

Akere Muna, Vice-Chair of the Board, Transparency International Owen Barder, Director, AidInfo, Development Initiatives, Ethiopia Chris Anderson, Director, Corporate & External Affairs Africa, Newmont Ghana Gold Ltd.

3:45 pm Panel 2: If Transparency Matters, Why is Africa Lagging Behind?

Chair: Minister Ronnie Shikapwasha, Minister of Information and Broadcasting Services, Zambia Respondents: Minister Moustapha Guirassy, Minister of Communications and Government Spokesperson, Senegal

Deputy Minister Shemelis Kemal, Office of Government Communication Affairs, Ethiopia

Faith Pansy Tlakula, Special Rapporteur on Freedom of Expression & Commissioner, African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, African Union Rick Snell, Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Tasmania, Australia Rakesh Rajani, Executive Director, Twaweza, Tanzania

5:15 pm Break